Functioning of Courts Situated within the Isolated Areas

URGENT MATTERS

To: All High Court Judges/All Judicial Officers and Presidents of Labour Tribunals of the Courts/LTs situated within isolated areas

Taking into consideration the press releases issued by the Department of Government Information dated 14.11.2020 and numbered 433/2020 and dated 15.11.2020 and numbered 434/2020 (as amended), you are directed to take up only the urgent matters during the week commencing from 16.11.2020 to 20.11.2020. In this regard, you are required to adhere to the following guidelines below.

1. The Presiding Judge of the Court should decide which matters are to be taken up, from and out of the matters received by way of motions, through the official fax and/or official email address of the respective Courts.
2. Every endeavor must be made to take up matters at the given time slots.

In stations where more than one Judge/Judicial Officer is functioning, Judges/Judicial Officers, by mutual arrangement, may work on a rotational basis.
3. The Judge/Judicial Officer who is in charge of administration should ensure to get down only the "minimum number of members of the staff" required to facilitate the above.
4. Taking up of urgent matters should be done only in the presence of relevant Counsel /Attorneys-At-Law only. Litigants should not, under any circumstance, be permitted to gain access to isolated areas. It is advisable to put Counsel/AALs on notice, that the litigants will not be permitted entry to the court premises.
5. At all times, Court proceedings must be carried out strictly adhering to the health advisories/guidelines issued by the government/health authorities.
6. The official fax numbers and email addresses of the Courts/LTs situated in the areas which have been declared as 'isolated areas' are given below:
